CLUB NEWS

Manager's Message

Happy Holiday's to you all! I want to again thank everyone for a great year. We have several member events coming up this month, so I hope to see you all several times before year end. Be sure to look at all we have to offer in this newsletter.

Our Yoga classes have started off with a bang with about 10 people coming each week. If you are interested, please join us on Friday mornings. Both members and non-members are welcome. Also, this is the season to start Paddle Tennis. If you are interested in lessons, please let me know as we have had a couple of people offer to show us how the game is played.

For January, as always, we will be closed the first week of the month for updating and repairs. However, so far, we have two exciting events planned for the rest of the month. On January 12th, Bruce Kirtley will offer his next wine pairing, this one for pairing wine with entrees. Our last two pairings were very successful, so look forward to this next installment. On the 25th, we will have another Murder Mystery Dinner. We will be limited to 32 participants for this one, so sign up early!

We are so excited to offer some winter exercise for our members. We hope many of you will be able to join us on Friday mornings either for the Beginners class or for the longer Intermediate class. You will need to bring your own mat to the class and Brooke will tell us if we need any other equipment at this point. Bring a friend!

Friday Yoga with Brooke Correll
Friday, December 7th, 14th, 21st, 28th

Beginners class 8:15am-9:15am
Intermediate class 9:30am-11am

Members $12, Non-Members $15

Yoga classes will be offered every Friday morning in the main dining room.

President's Message

This year seems to have gone by quickly. Your board, and its related committees, have all worked very hard implementing strategies to increase club use, solicit new members, and very importantly, improve the club use for special functions.

We are currently undergoing some repairs and maintenance, none of which would be possible without member contributions.

Thank you so much for your support. I wish you all the very best in the upcoming holiday season, and most importantly, I look forward to a prosperous 2019.

Bruce Kirtley
Board President

Back by popular demand....

Murder at Anonville Manor
Mystery Theater
Friday, January 25th
6pm-9pm
$32 per person

The historical Anonville Manor closed for business years ago because of a desperate need for restoration and daft rumors of ghost hauntings. The previous owners abandoned the rundown property, never turning back.

A secretive entrepreneur purchased the old bed & breakfast. The property has undergone renovations, and the owner announced to the media that the manor is free of paranormal activity, and has been restored to the pristine caliber of the good ole' days when the estate was frequented by the rich and famous. The proprietor has chosen to remain anonymous, but the townsfolk have found that choice to be quite mysterious. An exclusive group of guests have received invitations to the grand opening dinner party to be held in the legendary Majestic Ballroom of the estate. You are on the guest list. You are intrigued, but apprehensive, as not everybody on the invite list gets along well, and sparks could fly. This is where your story begins.

This is going to be a fun night of dinner and mystery, please call for reservations!

CLUB DINING

Club Casual Holiday Lunch
Wednesday, December 12th
11:30am-2:00pm
Adults $12
